PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Houston Springs is a well-located, age-restricted, golf course community, in Perry, GA. The development, totaling 494 acres has approximately 280 homes built and sold, with the balance partially completed, including golf course, clubhouse, tennis/pickle-ball court, arterial roads, and maintenance facilities constructed. The convenient location is just 30 minutes to Macon and 90 minutes to Atlanta International Airport.

The development includes 68 remaining improved lots, 64 roughed lots, and approvals for an additional 930 lots including 180 condos and 156 attached lots as well as 27 acres of commercially zoned property. The community charter allows the developer substantial leeway to make changes, including age restriction covenants, until 3/4 of the lots have been sold. Management has confirmed that additional utilities, and roadway capacity, are available for future expansion nearby. The 18-hole golf course, with gentle elevation changes, provides a beautiful backdrop for additional residential home sites.

The property is well situated within Houston County, just 1 mile from I-75 on Sam Nunn Blvd and Perry Parkway, which provides a loop around the City. Perry is located 20 miles from Robins Air Force Base, the largest single-site employer in the State of Georgia with over 22,000 employees and a $2.7 billion total annual economic impact. The base, along with several new employers, have provided much of the impetus for growth in the area, with Perry increasing by 50% in the past decade to 22,000 residents.
